

Sun 1st Oct., 1850

Asuncion, Paraguay,

Now we have arrived for the first inspection of our new agreement. Paraguay, the two Chaco tribes and ourselves are the three principal parties to it. We hope that it will be a good one, and that it will bring much good and satisfaction to all the parties. We shall have to see if the new agreement is in accordance with the original one, and if it is not, we shall have to make some changes.
We have now got the original one, and we shall have to compare it with the new one, and see if there are any differences. If there are, we shall have to make some changes in the new agreement.

Between the winter and spring, we expect to have to go to the winter camp, and to inspect the river; and to fix up roads for passage up and down the river, and to prepare quarters for us to stay in at each camp. We shall have to see the Captain of the Army.

On Friday we expect to go to the winter camp and to inspect the river. We shall have to fix up roads for passage up and down the river, and to see the Captain of the Army. We shall have to fix up roads for passage up and down the river, and to see the Captain of the Army. We shall have to fix up roads for passage up and down the river, and to see the Captain of the Army.
